Key teaching points about Lewis Hamilton

- Hamilton is the first black F1 driver
- He has had to cope with racist comments most notably in Spain where a group of fans mocked his colour.
- He was raised as a catholic, goes to church and believes God keeps him safe during races which can be very dangerous.
- He started by racing go-karts when he was still in primary school and his talent was spotted.
- Hamilton has broken many records including being the youngest champion (this has since been broken)
- He was awarded an MBE by the queen in 2009 and many people believe he deserves to be knighted
- He supports many charities including UNICEF, Great Ormond Street Hospital and Save the Children

Key teaching points about Harriet Tubman

- Harriet was a very religious woman and learned about the bible from her mother
- she was born as a slave in Maryland USA
- she was treated very badly and was put to work at a very young age
- Harriet escaped and then decided to help other slaves become free too
- her nickname was 'Moses' as she led her people to freedom (it is thought she helped over 300 people escape. She was so successful, slave-owners offered a reward of $40,000 dollars for her capture.
- her bravery led her to nurse wounded soldiers during the American Civil War
- In later life she spoke about Black citizens and women having equal rights.

'Who Am I' project

Who is in my family?

When did we come to Birmingham?

What makes me special?

What talents do I have?

Discussions and 'homework' around customs and traditions, national dress, food and flags.
